

Privacy & HIPAA Notice

Effective Date: March 2026

At Kako Healthcare, we believe every person deserves to be treated with dignity, compassion, and respect. Protecting your privacy is part of how we care for you. This notice explains how your health information is used and how it is protected.

We are required by federal HIPAA laws and Florida regulations to safeguard your protected health information (PHI). We take this responsibility seriously and use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical measures to protect your information. If a privacy breach occurs that affects your information, we will notify you as required by law.

Protected Health Information (PHI) includes information that identifies you and relates to your health, your care, or payment for services. This information may be shared in writing, electronically, or verbally during your care.

We may use or share your information for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations, including appointment reminders and care coordination. We may also share information when required by law.

Telehealth services are provided using HIPAA-compliant technology. Telehealth visits are documented in your medical record using the same standards of care as in-person visits.

You have the right to access your records, request corrections, request limits on certain disclosures, receive a paper copy of this notice at any time, and ask questions about how your information is used.
